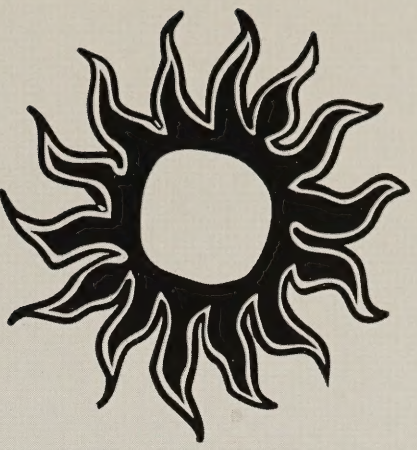
MORE Than You'd Expect



WE'RE OUTTA THIS WORLD

This year's theme ... what a concept ... "WE'RE OUTTA THIS WORLD." That's right, the Woodrow Wilson High School Presidents are "OUTTA THIS WORLD," and we have proven it again this school year. We overcame some bad publicity in the opening months of school but we didn't let that get us down. With heads held high, the Presidents orbited forward to make this year one of our very best years. We have so much to be proud of ... we have had some real "OUTTA THIS WORLD" Experiences. New security systems were installed in the school to insure the safety of all our students, extra security guards were hired to man the security systems, and teachers and parents volunteered endless hours to patrol the Presidential hallways.

As always, the Wilson student body was generous to the Portsmouth Community. The American Red Cross came to our school in November and approximately 54 pints of blood was donated by our student body and staff. Also in November the SCA organized a food drive for the needy and collected over 400 cans of food. In December, the homerooms collected money to sponsor children from the Portsmouth Social Services for a Christmas party. Twenty-Seven children attended the party and this helped brighten their holiday season. This successful project was known as Operation Santa Claus. That's right ... Wilson High School is "OUTTA THIS WORLD!" We're proud of all of our accomplishments this year and are looking forward to continuing our success and accomplishing all of our goals.

Students come from miles around to attend Wilson High School. Some come from Cavalier Manor, Hodges Manor, and Park Manor. Others represent the Prentis Park and Ida Barbour neighborhoods. Let's not forget Cradock and Westhaven! Somehow 1,600 students find their way to Wilson five days a week.

Using every method possible to get to school, students find a way. Most ride the bus, but not all. Some drive their own cars, some their parent's cars, some students even bum a ride, ride their bikes or if worse come to worst, they walk. Of course we all know that the students main goal is to get their own cars, when they turn 16! The end result — attend school everyday on time!

Can you ride that with heels?

Woodrow Wilson High School
1997 Golf Team

The 1997 Wilson Golf Team was headed by first year coach, Mr. Pollock. The team had a great season despite a 1-6 record in the Eastern District. Two matches were lost by less than 3 strokes and a third came at the hands of a strong Booker T. Washington squad by a mere 10 strokes. Leading the Presidents were seniors Aaron Short, Brandon Lauderbach, Gary Johnson, and Ed Powell; juniors Jimmy Key, Ryan Duncan, Jeremiah Lawrence, David Mick, Marcus Porter, and Ryan Kelly. The highlight of the season was Aaron Short's Eastern District performance, qualifying him for a birth in the regional tournament in October.

Members Go To Eastern District Tournament

The girl's tennis team finished 3 of 4 in '97. Laurie Monacelli, the only senior, with junior Yen Nguyen, Kimberly Hooker, and Tina Winther led the team. Underclassmen — Crystal Gomez, Lisa Kelly, and Astha Mamtani added tremendously to the success of the squad. We placed four team members into the third round of the Eastern District Tournament to give Mr. Hawkins an enviable rookie season. Way to go ladies!

Last year, Wilson's girls softball team won both the Eastern District and Tournament Championship with a record of 16-0 in district play and 20-2 overall. This year's team will have only five returning starters from last year, they are Lynsey Ellis, Sr., Dee Dee Fox, Sr., Nikki Goral, Sr., Erica Brown, So., Shelly Davis.

Coming off a championship season, this year's team will be young but experienced. With a little help at pitching, the team could have a chance to challenge for the District Championship again.

BASKETBALL

JV Girls Have Winning Season 11-3

This basketball season was very successful for the j.v. girls basketball team. The Lady Presidents finished the season with a 32 point victory over Norcom and a 11 and 3 record. This was the second consecutive year they finished with the same record. Last year they won the Eastern District Championship. This year they finished as co-champs along with Granby that finished with an identical record. These last two seasons have been very enjoyable for coach Roger Smith because the young ladies had a combined two year record of 22 wins and 6 losses. The varsity will be getting some very good young ladies and we hope the winning will continue.

Excellence in athletics, as well as academics, has long been a goal at Woodrow Wilson High School. The boys junior varsity basketball team has proven just that.

This year's team was rated as being the best in Portsmouth with solid victories over both Churchland and Norcom. We've improved ourselves significantly. We had a lot more depth than we're had in the past.

The backcourt was manned by freshman guard Antwane Corprew and sophomore guard Ashawn Robertson. Rounding out the backcourt were sophomore guards Anthony Holloway, Jared Johnson, Abduel Whitfield and freshman Kevin Young.

The two newcomers, both equipped with outstanding credentials that made this season a success, were sophomore forward Lorenzo Hainsworth and forward Matt Steinfurth, an eighth grader at Hunt-Mapp Middle School. They joined proven veterans like forward Darnell Barnes, Robert Fraser and Henry Staton, a trio of sophomores.

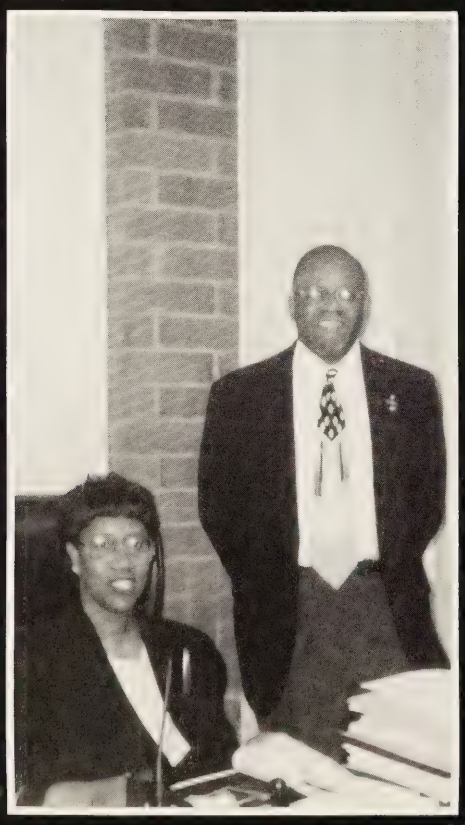
WWHS Administrators Are

Our distinguished principal, Mrs. Rosa Wells-Garris.



Principal

Rosa Wells-Garris

Mrs. Rosa Wells-Garris became our new principal in the late autumn of 1997. From the moment she took over as the head administrator of Wilson High School, she has earned the respect she so well deserves by both the faculty/staff and students. She laid the ground rules, has set examples for us all to follow, and has set her expectations high. As a result, our school has had a smooth running ever since! She is Wilson's top President! Mrs. Wells-Garris received a BA Degree from Johnson C. Smith University, Charlotte, North Carolina and a MA Degree from Atlanta University, Georgia. Further study has been done at ODU, Norfolk, VA.

Mrs. Wells-Garris' Message To The Student Body: Amid my untimely arrival to Woodrow Wilson High School as your acting principal, I found talented, thinking students who were determined to use their heads to get ahead. I also found dedicated faculty and staff members who enthusiastically embraced the change in leadership.

Despite the transition of leadership during the first semester, this school year is ending on a very positive note. The student body has made great strides in all areas of school life. Large numbers of students have made the honor roll each nine week period — many of whom were a Honor Roll; our JROTC, athletes, and other student groups have worked hard and represented the school well: our teachers and support staff have invested much time in and out of school. They used the community as a classroom laboratory to enable students to expand their knowledge and experiences beyond our school building. Teachers encouraged students to participate in essay contests and other competitions, and our International Studies Magnet Program continues to provide challenging experiences for the students enrolled.

As we prepare for the closing of this school year, I express sincere thanks to each of you for the valuable contributions you have made to our school's success. We can do so much together, and this school's yearbook is an outstanding example of the teamwork that exists here. When each of us works hard and strive to do our best, student achievement is realized.

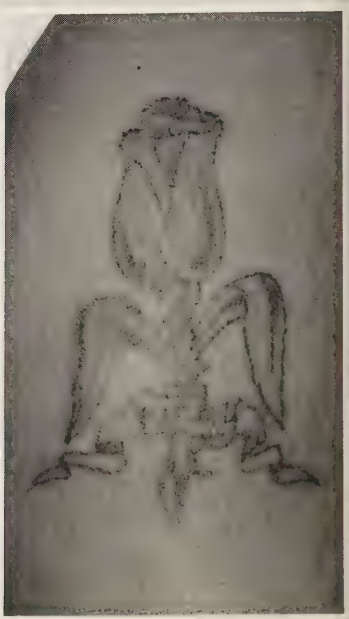
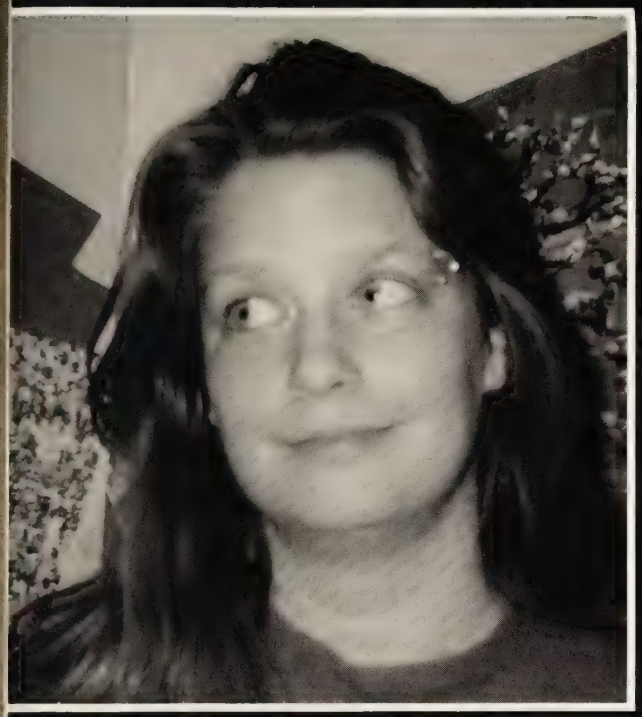
Tattoos And Body Piercing:

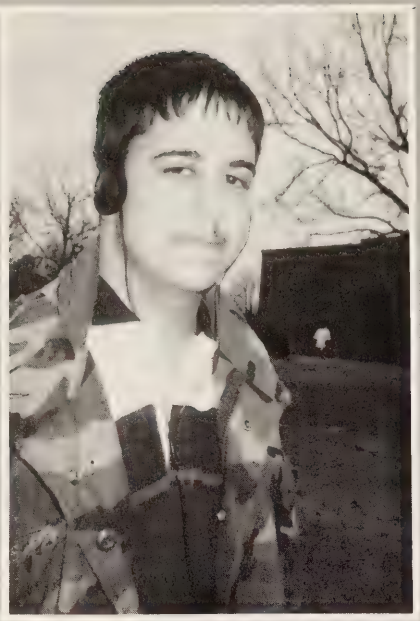
Tattoos and body piercing seems to be the hottest thing to do amongst teenagers today. Everywhere you look you see this form of art work. It seems that the ankle is a favorite spot for the tattooing of Greek letters. Tattooing and body piercing became a popular form of self expression and pictures on these pages show how some choose to express themselves.



No Pain, No Gain

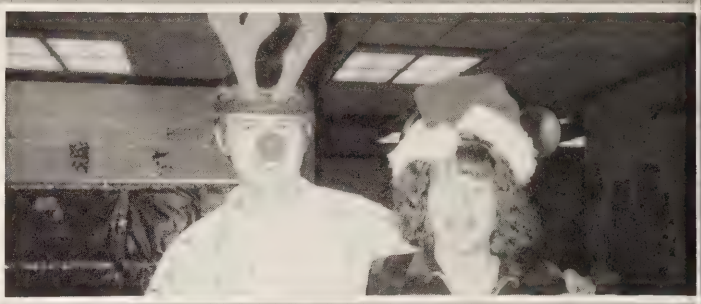


Can't Leave Home Without It



Dated a girl, turned out

Can't leave home without our furry friends

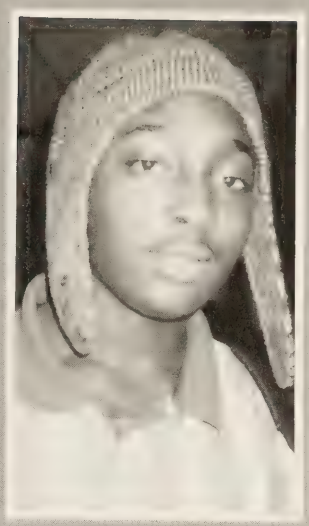


Every school needs a mascot

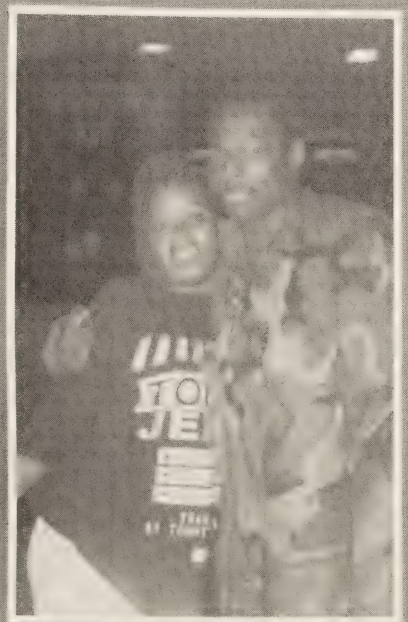
Somewhere over the rainbow

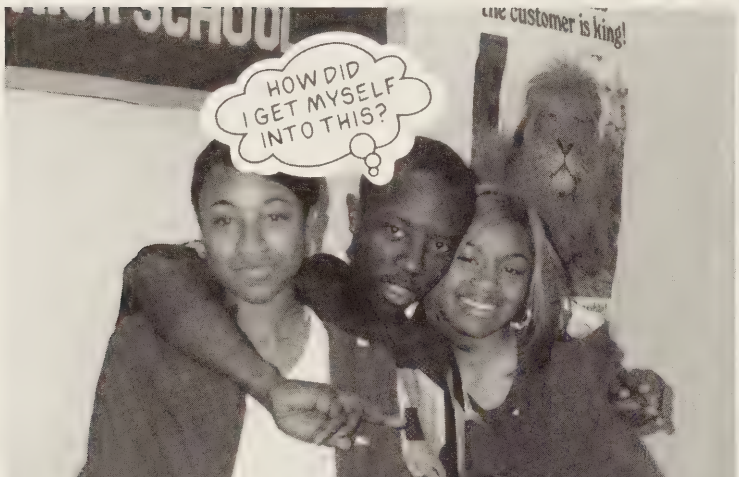
Hello Dolly!

Valerie has to have reminders of Travis around her.



Have you ever had one of those days when you couldn't leave home without that certain something? Such as good luck charms, water bottles, track shoes, that special hat, or how about those flowers your significant other sent you the day before? The day just wouldn't go right if you didn't have that special something tucked away with you in your backpack. Some choose to wear that special outfit or have those headphones hidden under the shirt. Whatever it is, we all have days that we need that extra UUMMPPPP to get us through the day!!





Aww . . .

"Do you have a quarter? My mom told me to call when I found love." Any way you say it, pick up lines can either be a good way to meet someone or a bad turn-off.

Because high school can be such a confusing place where one has to find time to juggle relationships, schoolwork, and worry about the future, few people tended to wonder how they would attract their mate. Cat calls and whistles are a few ways to get attention, but are never quite as memorable as those special lines exchanged by strangers when they notice each other for the first time.

So, whether it stops you in your tracks, or pushes you to keep walking, pick up lines are a part of everyday high school life that can either be a big turn on or a big turn off.

*"Are you talking to anyone?" — Esco Corleone
*"Can I holler at you?" — Jenny Siler

*"I must be dreaming cause I know I've seen you in my fantasy" — Katheryn Riddick
*"Hey baby" — Donnetta Stokes
*"You must be tired cause you've been running through my mind all day" — Ashanti Milliner
*"Your name must be Candy, cause you look so sweet" — Tetto
*"Here is a dime, call Ter-Ter any time" — Terrance Powell
*"Yo Shorty!" — Sheryl Boone
*"Hey, ya wanna wrestle?" "It works all the time" says Aaron Cross
*"Kelly Lynch says hers are quite original, they are always, "Good Lord!!!"
*"Somebody call the cops, it has to be illegal to look that good" — Ebony Peele

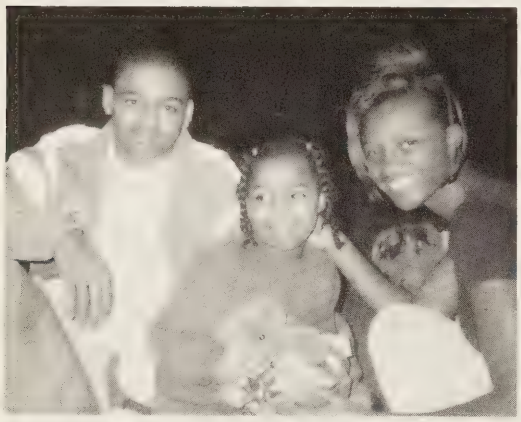
The SCA Does Their Part!

It doesn't hurt ... Really.

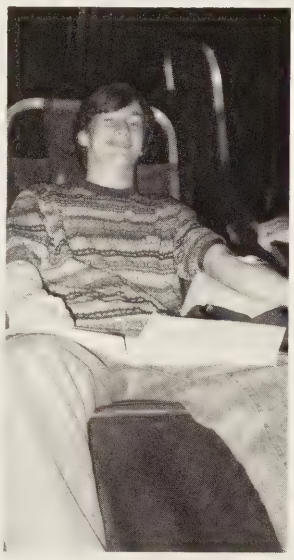


Darius and Jamika help out with Operation Santa Claus.

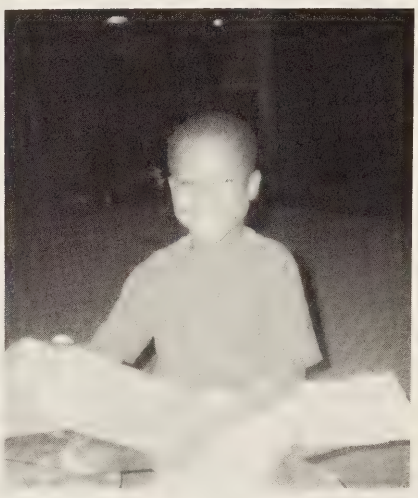
Presents ... then ... we eat!

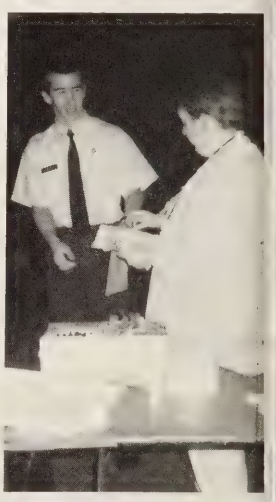
I love it!

Help! This box is too big!



Brad gives his pint.





I can do damage with this.

The SCA has had a great year. The fall was filled with traditional activities such as Spirit Week and Homecoming. In November, the SCA sponsored a blood drive and collected 54 pints of blood, which was 9 pints over our goal! Operation Santa Claus was held on December 17, and 32 children were sponsored by the whole school!

Everyone get Jana!

Elite All American Cheerleaders

Halftime Performance

mber, Kathryn, and Brandy taking a reak.

This year Wilson High School Cheerleaders had the opportunity to try out for the Elite All-American Cheerleader Assocation. They pick the top ten percent in each state to cheer at the Citrus Bowl in Orlando, Florida. The girls were judged on their appearance, skill, and techniques. Wilson was the only school in the district to have any cheerleaders make it. They were Sr. Kathryn Riddick, Sr. Brandy Butler, Sr. Michea'l Griffin and Jr. Amber Wyatt.

The girls had a great time. They were there from Dec. 28-Jan. 2. Kathryn, Brandy, and Amber spent numerous hours practicing to make sure their halftime was the best. But practicing was not the only thing they did. They went to Disney World, Universal Studios and many other places. The girls had an experience of a lifetime and it was an honor to be proud of.

Junior Reserves Officer

The Woodrow Wilson High School's Junior Reserves Officer Training Corps is composed of almost three hundred of Wilson High's most elite students. It is mandatory that the cadets wear their uniform every Wednesday. The cadets wear their uniforms proudly through the halls of this great school. The cadets have several teams to choose from to give their time to such as the unarmed or armed drill team, the color guard and the raider team. Practices are held every Monday, Wednesday and Thursday after school. On some occasions the cadets have to practice from Monday thru Friday. Their hard work and practice is rewarded at competition when they "bring home the gold." We are very proud of the Army JROTC program and how it instills pride and integrity in it's cadets.

The Last Moments

Tick ... Tick ... Tick ... The clock always seemed to move slower than normal when it came to the last few moments of the day. Many students waited the entire block for the last few minutes they got to socialize; consequently, when the last few minutes arrived, time didn't go by fast enough. When the bell finally rang, it was out the door and into the parking lot, either to catch the bus or hitch a ride with someone who drove to school. Before you know it, it will be time again to come back to school and start the whole routine all over again!

Bye ... See you tomorrow!

Ebony patiently awaits the bell.
